PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

By Pat Henderson

On March 23, a great number of dancers convened on Port Orange for Spring Fling. It was a great time to dance together and also see how many camp dances that we remembered. It was interesting that out of 11 dances taught by Theo and Lia, groups concentrated on remembering the same three or four dances. Bobby and I hope to work on more Romanian dances for the Orlando group as time permits. We owe our gratitude to Julius Horvath for providing the facilities and the food and for being the DJ!

As part of this newsletter, Terry Abrahams has the Treasurer's Report. Unfortunately, we did realize a deficit this year and it is all my doing. I was over zealous with the discounts giving over $1100 in discounts! However, the treasury was built up from past camps so perhaps this was the year to make a correction. The base price for camp will have to go up next year. Also, the camp charges about $10 more a night per person than before the cabin renovations. If we can figure out how to get that wood floor to camp, I believe that we will have the perfect facility!

Bobby and I attended our first Rang Tang April 5-7 in Atlanta. We had a great time seeing Nicolaas Hilferink again. He came to our Florida Camp in 1990 and we are still doing a few of his dances from then. He taught several mixed Romanian dances such as Serbian, Greek and Yiddish along with traditional Romanian dances. It was a delightful weekend and we met people from about ten states. Other Florida dancers who attended were Jenneine Lambert, Julieta Brambila, Samuel Austin, Slagjana Jakimovik, Carol McGinn and Sheila Balsdon.

The 50th annual Florida Folk Festival in on despite being pulled from the Department of State's budget last fall. It was transferred to the Stephen Foster Park to produce and sponsor. You will have the opportunity to dance for admission if you let me know by May 10. There are usually motels available in Lake City. Camp sites are also available in the park with reservations ahead of time. Read more about the festival elsewhere in the newsletter.

ORLANDO INT. FOLK DANCE CLUB

By: Pat Henderson

We enjoyed Spring Fling immensely with around 12 from our group attending. We enjoyed seeing and dancing with everyone.

A few people traveled during the past month. Bobby and I went to Rang Tang in Atlanta after picking up Jenneine Lambert and Julieta Brambila in Gainesville. Bobby and I enjoyed our first Rang Tang with more Romanian dances and a live band for the evening parties. Atlanta was gorgeous with the dogwoods and azaleas in bloom. Juanita Schockey traveled to Phoenix for a family visit while Joy Herndon visited family in Sacramento. . Lucy Birkemeier traveled to Virginia to take care of her nieces.

Bonnie Kaplan from New Haven, Connecticut, visited our group at the beginning of April.

Bobby had a scare this month when he failed the stress test as a follow up to his bypass surgery. Upon further testing, it was determined that the stress test was wrong but we did find out that all 5 bypasses look great and are working fine.

Joe Birkemeier, Palmira Mora-Vals, Phyllis Dummer and I performed for the ESL students at a local elementary school on April 19. The kids were great and loved doing the Mexican Hat Dance and the Macarena with us.

Limerick Contest winners from Camp were:

(for those who got a newsletter version which omitted the *s)

If people would dance from their birth
With love, and with joy, and with mirth
We all could agree

It's easy to see

There'd be much greater peace on the earth.

(cont'd from p. 1)

There's a tale that a dancer named Alice Often tangoed with partners from Dallas.
 If they stepped on her toe,
 She struck them a blow,
 That dispatched them with anger and malice.
 David Digby *
 Congratulations to both of you!

TREASURER'S REPORT

This report is for camp +/- only.

Camp income: including camp fees, t-shirts, memberships, videos and contributions (including Olga Princi contributions from Spring Fling)

$13,392.50

Expenses:

Camp	$9,406.00
Tip to camp	100.00
Vasilescu - Fee, Airfare, Videos -	2,526.00
Sandy Starkman	700.00
Syllabus, supplies, CDs, snacks	536.86
Tshirts	300.40
Sunday Snack	25.00
Flag	18.00
Camp video and mailing	274.69
Buttons (name tags)	20.00

Expense total $13,906.95

Balance: - $514.45

As you see, we had a deficit this year. The executive board has discussed this and has suggestions to make for next year. Pat discusses some of this in her president's message. If you have any questions, address either her or me.

Our general FFDC balance in the bank as of 3/31/02 is $5,976.90 even with that deficit, and a few memberships have come in since that time as well. So we are not hurting by any means. We are going to take out a CD and let it make us a little money before next camp.

PORT ORANGE

By Julius Horvath

IT IS A BLACK DAY IN DAYTONA BEACH/
 PORT ORANGE FOLK DANCE LAND !!!!!

I have just been informed that the beautiful Senior recreation center where we regularly dance and hold our Spring Fling is to be temporarily converted to a day care center and in two years torn down to make room for a huge "River Walk" park. They bought all the land in the area including the next door trailer park to provide the space. They say it will be an asset.

Meanwhile, kids will destroy that beautiful floor and we will be moved to another facility with a terrazzo floor a few blocks away. It seems nothing we say or do can change their minds. sigh

There is no plan (or money) to put in a new wood floor there in the future and no plan for a wood floor in the brand new community center planned to be built nearby in three years. The members of the town council are just not dancers and do not understand the benefits of a wood floor.

I accepted the Spring Fling date and facility so as not to lose everything in these volatile times. Please let me know your thoughts... In memoriam to our wood floor.....Julius

CAMP COLLAGE AVAILABLE

By Pat Henderson

At Spring Fling, several people brought their pictures from camp and we composed a collage which is now available. The cost is $4.00 which includes mailing ($3.00 if not mailed which would mean you coming to Orlando or the Florida Folk Festival). The color picture is on glossy photo paper and is ready to frame. The money collected will go toward the Olga Princi Scholarship fund. Send money for the collage to: Pat Henderson, 9859 Berry Dease Road, Orlando, FL 32825. (Email recipients will get a separate file which is a copy of the collage).

NEWS COURNATIONS WORKSHOP

By Christina Wetherington

Date: Tuesday, April 16, 2002, 8:50 AM

We are in Wilmington, North Carolina. The workshop is going to be June 7th-9th. The cost is $70 per person (dancers over 12) this includes about 14-15 hours of workshop, dinner/mixer on Friday night, lunch and dinner/dance on Saturday night and brunch on Sunday. The hotels we have blocked off rooms at are $75 per night for single, double, triple or quad occupancy (all are double rooms) and both offer free continental breakfast. So anyway, more details are available from Pat or Jan.

JACKSONVILLE

By Pearl F. G. Roth

We are back dancing again after taking a break for Passover and Taxes.

A big THANK YOU to everyone who came to help celebrate Passover with us. We had a wonderful time. If you didn't make it this year we hope you can join us next year.

We will be dancing on Wed. 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm starting today 4-17-02 and on Sundays 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm. There is of course no charge.

We will be studying Russian, Greek and Bulgarian dances and start working on K'mu Sira Trufa on Wed. and on Sun. we will work on basic Belly dance movements, ballet warm up, bulgarobics and review basic beginner and previously taught dances.

If you can make it please come. I NEED the exercise after sitting around doing nothing but TAXES since Passover.

Dancingly yours, Pearl F. G. Roth

THE 50th ANNUAL FLORIDA FOLK FESTIVAL will be held in White Springs on May 24-26. The Florida Folk Dance Council is organizing a show on Saturday, May 25th. I am looking for volunteers for the show. If you dance, you and your family get free admission. If you do not want to perform, please consider going to the festival since it is always a worthwhile event. If you volunteer to perform, please send me a list of dances that you would like to perform. I will look over the requests and get a dance list out in about two weeks. That will give us a month to prepare. We usually meet on Saturday and run the show together before the performance. If anyone needs a costume, I have plenty extra for both men and women. If you perform, I believe that you can get free camping onsite as long as there is room. I know that Jenneine is setting up an international campsite with the Gainesville group. The Gainesville group has a separate slot for performing but some of them may want to perform with the state group--the Florida Folk Dancers! Let me know as soon as you decide if you or anyone in your groups would like to join us. I do know that I would like to do Hora de la Tulnici, Yolanda, and Ani Ma-Amin from camp so that is almost half the show there.

PALM COAST

From Jan Lathi

We are delighted at the prospect of having Arleen Kaufmann from Gainesville share dancing experiences with the Palm Coast International Dancers who meet Thursday evenings in Flagler Beach. Arlene will spend a few months in Flagler Beach beginning some time in May.

Amar Lathi made the top ten in short course (25 meters long pool) in 50, 100, 200 meters Butterfly, 50 meters Backstroke, 200 meters Freestyle and Medley Relays; and the 400 meters Freestyle Relay for the year 2001 in his age group of 65-69 years. He also made an "All American" in the 400 meters Medley Relay by setting a new US national record as a member of the Florida Mavericks relay team and thereby being rated no.1 in the top ten. Hats off, Amar!

ENGLISH COUNTRY

DANCERS

By Charlie Dyer

Our English country dance band "Jubilee" and the St. Augustine English Country Dancers have been invited to the 50th annual Florida Folk Festival. You can find our acceptance letter at: <http://chdyer.tripod.com/fifolk1.jpg>

The web site for the Folk Festival is: <http://www.floridastateparks.org/folkfest/>

Although details have not been worked out, my hope is that we will have a 90 minute slot at the dance stage (in years past this was next to the bell tower) for a participatory English Country Dance. When I made my submission to the Festival organizers, I made it clear we were expecting to do a participatory dance and that we are not a performing group. However, I would expect that perhaps the first 20' minutes of our time might be a demonstration of 2 or 3 English dances- perhaps a longways dance to show the general format and 1 or 2 dances like Winter Solstice that would be too difficult to teach in this setting.

Those of you who have gone to the Festival in recent years have seen an increase in participatory dance. Contra has been a mainstay in addition to Cajun and Israeli dance.

The Festival takes place Memorial Day weekend; I believe it opens on Friday May 24 and runs through Sunday. In the past, Monday has been used for clean-up. Right now, I have no idea what day or time we will be allotted.

I certainly hope that English country dancers from all over Florida will attend and show how much interest and support there exists for this great activity. Please send me your comments and suggestions.

I will update you as I can.

Note: Next Eng. Country Dance in St. A:
FRIDAY, April 26, 2002, 8 PM to 10:30 PM, beginner lesson at 7:45. St. Augustine Art Association, 22 Marine St., St. Augustine, FL. Live music with Jubilee; calling by Charlie Dyer, Donation of $7 per person. Ask about a family rate.
Bring a food or beverage item to share and take a $1 off the suggested donation. Beginners welcome! All dances are walked through and called. Contact Charlie Dyer 904-731-7058;

From Sandy Starkman:

March 25, 2002: Greetings from cold Toronto – brrr! ...I just remembered that people were interested in the words to Moj Dragane – so here they are. ...Sorry it is so late but as we get older it takes time to remember things! Right?

I really enjoyed the camp – the atmosphere, friendliness and dancing were super. I hope I get invited back!

When we went to Texas the weather got even colder than Florida which is very unusual. I've been there many years for the festival and never experienced weather like that. Please give my love to ... the other dancers I met...Always, Sandy Starkman (Thank you Sandy!)

Moj Dragane:

Moj dragane, moj nevene kako zivis ti bez mene,
Moj dragane, moj nevene kako zivis ti bez mene.

Ja bez tebe kako tako ti bez mene bas nikako,
Ja bez tebe kako tako ti bez mene bas nikako.

Oj divojko zuta krusko bil' volila da si musko,
Oj divojko zuta krusko bil' volila da si musko.

Bil' volila da si momce da poljubis ti djevojce,
Bil' volila da si momce da poljubis ti djevojce.

(My dearest, my blossom, how can you live without me? Me without you, so, so, you without me, no
how. Hey you beautiful girl, would you rather be a man? Would you rather be a man so you can kiss beautiful girls?)

GAINESVILLE

By Raluca Rosca

Please join the Gainesville group congratulating Tom Whitmore on the occasion of his wedding!
We could not dance for the wedding party in Connecticut, but we sent our best wishes up north.
Tom was instrumental in transferring the music used by UFIFD from tapes and LPs to CDs, as well as in introducing some of us to the pleasure of Ballroom and Latin dancing. Long, happy and healthy life together, Tom and Melanie!

From Raluca Rosca:

How to (not) import a taragot... (RE: Carol Mc Ginn's note in the March issue on the funny instrument heard in 'Hora Vlaha'): First built by V.
J. Schunda of Budapest in late 1800s, the taragot or 'torogoata' has been since taken up enthusiastically by Romanian musicians (and produced locally as well). Dumitru Farcas is Romania's most famous virtuoso on taragot; you can hear him on WDR LC 6759 (Dumitru Farcas, Taraf Mociu et al., Wild Sounds from Transylvania,
Wallachia & Moldavia, Network Medien, Germany
1997) or EDC 160 (Dumitru Farcas, Tresors
Foklorique Roumains, Electrecord, Romania 1995).
I bought the first CD on Amazon.com, Suze Stentz of Opet has for sale the second one.

Our "Hero of the Day" is Julius Horvath, who diligently, every year, hosts one of the best folk dance events around. He cooks, announces, replenishes the punch, DJs and just plain provides a wonderful bash. Thank you for Spring Fling!
